Instructions

1. Schedule a face-to-face meeting with your instructor. The two required meetings must be at least two weeks apart. This is an oral consult and NO written submittals are required.
2. Discuss your project either from a standpoint of a problem, or an idea you would like to try. Be the originator without the instructor having to pry you for information. Show what you have done to solve a potential problem or how your idea(s) may be implemented.
  - a. It is ok to ask questions or get guidance. However, the interview should show that you have already tried to find answers.
3. Come up with an action plan during the consultation of what you are going to do and during what time frame.
